Hello Northwest Students, Faculty and Staff. This monthly newsletter will keep you updated on what is happening within the department of Residential Life and Auxiliary Services. This department handles more than just room placements and would like to keep everyone updated on what is happening. Below are some new things happening in our department that affects all of you. Each month there will be a "What's in this Issue:" section that will give some insight as to what will be in this newsletter. We hope this will keep everyone updated and won't be just another email. Enjoy!

Hall Updates

Northwest added approximately 300 new security cameras across campus. The residence halls received cameras at all entries and exits as well as vending machines. This is another safety feature that is an addition to the already established fob readers on every exterior door. This will assist in conduct meetings between professional staff and students and also serves as a tracking monitor on who comes in and out of the residence halls at a given time.

Events

The Residential and Auxiliary Services team will be holding a Scavenger Hunt across campus during the week of March 1-5. All students are allowed to participate. ### RA/SA Programming

Resident and Student Assistants put on social programs for their residents to get to know one another while also having fun. Below are a few programs that have happened this semester. If you are a RA/SA and would like to see your programs featured in next month's newsletter, email s530156@nwmissouri.edu to be featured.

Student Assistants Olivia Zylstra, Hope Holzworth and Anna Beckman held a Valentine's Day Card making social for the girls in Roberta Hall. While residents came to make cards for fun, they also earned community service hours for their sororities. Zylstra took the cards to the seniors at Parkdale Manor Senior Living for Valentine's Day and hoped it put a smile on their faces.

Resident Assistant Madi Glass used funds from Hudson and Perrin's Hall Council to buy groceries for her Grocery Bingo social event. Several residents from throughout HP and other buildings came to join in on the fun to win some free groceries.

Throwback

This 1949 photo shows students in a Residence Hall (Now Roberta Hall). When fire damaged the hall in 1951, this photo was released to local newspapers as an example of a typical dorm room.
